

Girl and Troop Awards, Proceeds, and Recognitions

Girl Recognition Items

Award and recognition items are cumulative.

Solve It Together: Online magazine registration and learning activity, and enter 12 email addresses – Solve It Together patch

Magazines

2 items – GSI patch

6 items – Desk set

15 items – Sterling Silver Bloodhound Charm

Nuts/Chocolates

10 Items – Unlock the Mystery patch

30 items – Plush Bloodhound

75 items – Duffle Bag

Troop Proceeds

- Troops earn $2.50 for every new or renewed subscription sold, and music, book and gift sold
- Troops earn $1.00 for every nut/chocolate item sold

Troop Awards

- Troop averages based on girls participating in the program
- Troop averages 5 magazines and 40 nut/chocolate items...each girl receives knit beanie cap
- Troop averages 10 magazines and 60 nut/chocolate items...each girl receives $10 in Fall FUNds
- Troop averages 12 magazines and 80 nut/chocolate items...each girl receives the Super Patch and the troop is entered into a drawing where one troop will win a trip to Ashdon Farms!

Fall FUNds may be redeemed by the following:

- Council-approved day camps
- River Valleys resident camps
- Council-sponsored program events
- Girl Scout Shops and Trading Posts
- GSUSA membership dues
- Council-approved Girl Scout Cadette, Senior, and Ambassador extended troop trips
- Approved and completed Girl Scout Silver and Gold Award projects
- Fall FUNds will expire August 31, 2011

Be A Reader

Girls earn the "Be a Reader" patch the first year they complete the "Be a Reader" activity booklet activities for their grade level. An additional bee patch is earned for each year of completion after the initial year. These patches are available for purchase at River Valleys Girl Scout Shop.