Thank you, Tish!

In January 2023, Tish Bolger retired from Girl Scouts River Valleys. She has served in various leadership roles for the organization for more than 20 years - most notably becoming the CEO of Girl Scouts River Valleys in 2015.

Under Tish's leadership, the organization invested in technology, advocacy, STEM (science, technology, engineering, and math), and DEIA/RJ (diversity, equity, inclusion, access, and racial justice) training and programming. She leaves the organization in excellent financial standing with assets the board and staff can continue to use to grow its many transformational programs for girls.

Girl Scouts River Valleys staff, board, and our many partners feel privileged to have worked with Tish and are enormously grateful for her many contributions to the Movement.

Dear Friends,

We are on the precipice of exciting change at Girl Scouts River Valleys as we welcome a new CEO, dive deeper into our strategic plan, and continue our journey to become an anti-racist organization. As we look forward, we invite you to reflect with us on last year (Fiscal Year 2022: October 1, 2021-September 30, 2022) through this report.

We launched the For Every Girl Strategic Plan, which commits Girl Scouts to boldly lead as an anti-racist organization that uplifts and empowers every girl to know their worth and lead in their world. Together with our new Equity and Culture Office, community organizations, staff, volunteers, and youth themselves, we continued working to provide a place of access, inclusion, and belonging for all Girl Scouts.

In historic news, we are beyond grateful to have received a $4.2 million transformational unrestricted gift from philanthropist and novelist MacKenzie Scott. This is the largest gift in Girl Scouts River Valleys' history and is an incredible testament to the relevance and impact of Girl Scouts' mission and purpose. Over the next decade, this investment in Girl Scouts River Valleys will help provide the resources necessary to serve the complex needs of girls and their families. We will not miss the opportunity to be bold, creative, and in relationship with the women, girls, and communities who are a priority for us.

Girl Scouts turned obstacles into opportunities. When the Girl Scout Cookie Program encountered world-wide supply chain issues, we created and launched the Supply Chain Expert patch program. Thousands of Girl Scouts became supply chain experts and gained critical business acumen. And, despite the hurdles, they sold more cookies than the previous year, funding amazing experiences for themselves and their troops, including trips to near and far destinations as well as weeks at summer camp.

Girl Scouts inspired us as they embraced issues they care about like mental health, the environment, and endangered animals. We had 725 Girl Scouts earn a Highest Award by designing and implementing lasting solutions to challenges in their communities. Girl Scouts River Valleys' Callie G. received a Gold Award Scholarship from Girl Scouts of the USA for her project, which tackled climate change by hosting an extensively researched podcast.

We know that dedicating resources and support for our volunteers creates a better Girl Scout experience for all members. We expanded our Fall Launch volunteer education event to welcome troop leaders, as well as service unit volunteers, which provided these amazing Girl Scout champions with personal and professional development opportunities. None of the accomplishments from this last year could have been possible without the support of our incredible 6,500 volunteers.

We are grateful for your continued support of the Girl Scout Movement and our bold strategic plan. Girls deserve to have their voices heard, to have space where they can bring their whole selves, and opportunities to explore who they want to become.

Girls deserve a future of their own creation. Girl Scouts is where that future begins.

Together in Girl Scouting,

Girls Lead the Way

Through the Girl Scout Leadership Experience, Girl Scouts of all backgrounds and abilities can unapologetically be themselves as they discover their strengths and rise to meet new challenges—whether they want to climb to the top of a tree or the top of their class, lace up their boots for a hike or advocate for climate justice, or make their first best friends.

Advocacy, Friends, Careers, and Adventures!

In 2022, girls exercised their voices by advocating for issues they care about at Girl Scouts' Day at the Capitol. They experienced hands-on learning in the trades through Power Girls programs, camped with their Girl Scout sisters under the city lights at the St. Paul Saints campout, and adventured across the country (and the globe!) with their troops!

2,800 girls attended in-person program events and 900+ girls attended virtual events.

"It was so cool to learn from a real engineer!"

"I learned about a bunch of new jobs that I knew existed but didn't know anything about."

494 Girl Scouts traveled with their troop or as Juliettes in 2022. Popular destinations included Savannah, GA—to see the birthplace of Girl Scouts' founder, Juliette Gordon Low—as well as Chicago, Florida, and many national parks. Several trips were out of the country—Ecuador, Switzerland, England, The Bahamas, and more!

"Traveling with Girl Scouts was a wonderful opportunity for our daughter. She struggles with anxiety and was nervous to go on this trip. Her troop leaders and the girls in her troop helped her feel comfortable, supported, and included. She had an amazing time and came home confident, happy, and relaxed. She will have memories for a lifetime!"

2022 Girl Scout Cookie Program

In 2022, Girl Scouts River Valleys was one of the top councils for cookie sales in the country! Congratulations, Girl Scouts!

Girl Scouts donated 91,000 packages to healthcare heroes, food shelves, and school lunch programs, as well as $11,415 in cookie proceeds to the Animal Humane Society.

Troops earned $3,168,000, funding amazing experiences like travel near and far and unforgettable weeks at summer camp!

Girl Scouts sold 3,529,000 packages of cookies, sparking countless smiles and meaningful interactions in their networks and communities.

11,450

Girl Scouts sold cookies and gained entrepreneurial and leadership skills.

Countless Girl Scout volunteers parents, guardians, staff, and partners courageously climbed through the 2022 Cookie Program! No matter what came their way this season, their innovation, dedication, and creativity were unmatched. Thank you!

On average, each girl sold 308 packages.

3,500 Girl Scouts earned the “Koala-fied Supply Chain Expert” patch, learning more about how the supply chain can affect businesses.

“I have grown significantly in my leadership and communication skills. Selling cookies has helped me find my voice.”

Creating a Brighter Future for All

The Gold, Silver, and Bronze Awards are the highest honors Girl Scouts can earn. By leading their communities and working on issues they care about, they make their world and future brighter.

In 2022, Girl Scouts volunteered more than 20,000 hours in their communities while earning their Highest Award.

29

Girl Scouts earned Gold Awards

140

Girl Scouts earned Silver Awards

556

Girl Scouts earned Bronze Awards

Bronze Award: Protecting Native Endangered Species

Sharing a passion for animals, Junior Girl Scouts in Troop 47933 researched the local wildlife in their area to find out how they could help. They worked with their city and as a team to create and install permanent informational signs at trailheads, parks, and boat launches to educate their community on how to help protect native animals.

Silver Award: Saving Minnesota's State Bird

Learning that lead fishing tackle is causing lead poisoning and killing loons (and other waterfowl), Cadette Girl Scout Cari F. set out to save these integral members of Minnesota's ecosystem. She handed out hundreds of samples of lead-free tackle and stickers, and she collected signatures to send with letters to retailers asking them to reduce or remove lead tackle currently on their shelves and carry more lead-free tackle.

Gold Award: Raising Awareness for the Visually Impaired Across Continents

Girl Scout Jeanette P. built a partnership between the Minnesota State Academy for the Blind and a school for the blind in Tbilisi, Georgia to foster an international community and raise disability awareness. She created educational resources and a podcast, and visited the Republic of Georgia to deliver learning materials to the school for the blind to help students for years to come.

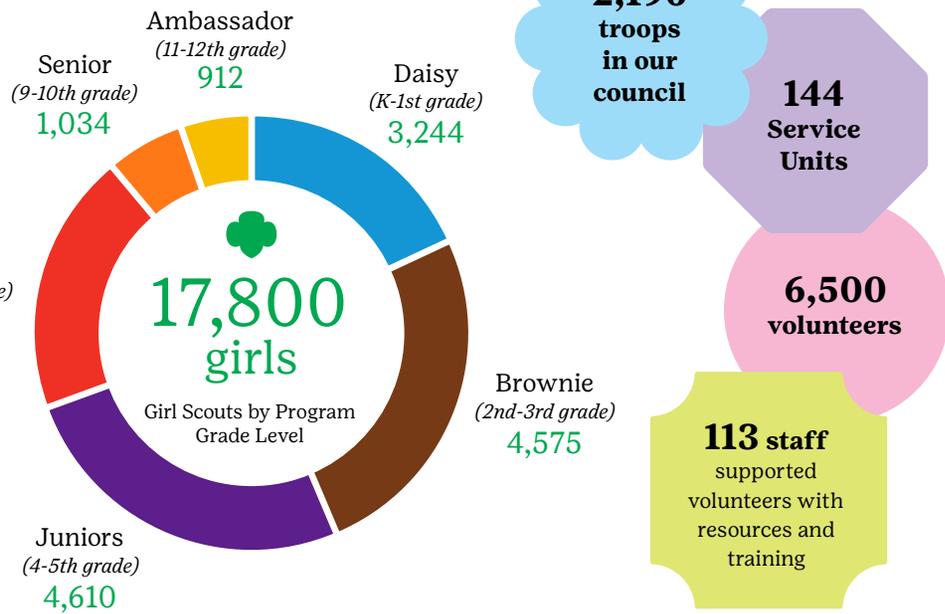

"I learned how to adapt and work with what I had. The pandemic showed me I could prevail through a crisis and still achieve a long-term goal."

Girl Scout Members and Volunteers Make the World a Better Place

We supported 17,800 girls as they built courage, confidence, and character and made the world a better place.

13,000 girls live in the 7-county metro and 4,800 live in the non-metro. 4,900 of all girl members were new Girl Scouts in 2022. 18.5% of girl members identified as Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC).

Investing in Our Volunteers Creates Safe, Inclusive Spaces for Girl Scout Members

In 2022, new troop leaders were invited to jumpstart their Girl Scout year alongside other new leaders. Girl Scouts River Valleys staff provided training, troop meeting plans, resources, and a network of support to help them be confident and successful leaders.

“Everything [at the training] was amazing! My confidence just [wasn't as high before]. The trainers were phenomenal, very patient and SO informative!

Ways to be a Girl Scout

Girl Scouts River Valleys strives to be an anti-racist organization that uplifts and empowers every girl to know their worth and lead in their world. This strategic commitment has been launched with significant resources dedicated to creating an Equity and Culture Office staffed with two executive leadership roles, assessing and aligning our internal and external organizational efforts, and reporting annually on our progress. To increase access for all, Girl Scouts River Valleys provides a variety of accessible, inclusive pathways for girls to participate:

Volunteer-managed

(led by a volunteer—usually a parent or guardian of one of the members in the troop)

Mentored Troop

(ethnically diverse Girl Scout troops primarily led by BIPOC volunteer troop leaders)

Program events and camp sessions

(led by Girl Scouts River Valleys staff and program partner volunteers)

ConnectZ

(culturally-responsive leadership program led by Girl Scouts River Valleys staff, at no cost to the Girl Scout)

Juliettes

(individual Girl Scouts guided by a mentor)

Seeing Themselves in One Another

Mentored Troops center the unique experiences of Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC) youth and encourage a sense of belonging and sisterhood in a culturally responsive environment. Troops are led primarily by BIPOC volunteers who care deeply about making a difference in the lives of girls and in their communities. In Fiscal Year 2022, 350 Girl Scouts and 55 troop leaders participated in Girl Scouts through Mentored Troops.

Passionate about helping girls become confident, fearless leaders, Paulette Bonneur and Karvee Kawalawu are amazing leaders themselves. Paulette wanted to raise her daughter, Harper, to have a sense of belonging and lead in her world. Paulette thought, “If I’m going to do that for Harper, I wonder if I can do the same thing for other girls?”

For Karvee, it was important to make a difference and bring pride to her community and family. She reflects on her experience as a Mentored Troop leader: “When you see just how excited these girls are and how happy they are when they see each other, it is an unforgettable experience.”

“Our girls look up to our troop leaders. They have been amazing role models. They are just incredible.”

Building Campfires and Confidence

Girl Scouts couldn’t wait to go to summer camp in 2022! After two years of on-and-off social distancing and virtual learning, girls were excited to spend time at camp with one another swimming, riding horses, building campfires, sleeping in cabins (tents and yurts, too!), hiking, mountain biking, and more.

Along with experiencing these classic camp activities, Girl Scouts were eager to return to camp in 2022 because it is about so much more: It’s time away from screens, belly laughing with bunkmates, sing-alongs at mealtime, the chorus of crickets chirping under starry skies, and playing outside in the fresh air. Camp is a place to make lifelong memories and just be a kid in the outdoors!

“What a confidence builder! Trying something new can be scary, but when surrounded by your peers [at Girl Scout Camp], it takes some of the fear away.”

-Girl Scout Parent

“Because of COVID implications the past few years, our troop had really been building up to this camp experience as they literally had saved their cookie money for a couple years to fund it. It was so rewarding to watch them grow from slightly hesitant of making pudgie pies to expert pie makers by dessert time. They learned new skills, tried new things, and even got caught in a surprise rain shower coming back from paddle boarding. The girls were singing the songs from the performances at the s’more campfire the whole way home!”

-Troop Camp Volunteer

“My camper really enjoyed surveying. Although they are not usually invested in math and science they proudly showed me the notebook with their measurements and how seeing women doing surveying (and other Power Girls activities) impacted their perceptions of what their options might be.”

-Girl Scout Parent

Power Girls

During a week-long session at Camp Lakamaga, 75 campers practiced problem solving, experimented with technology, developed their leadership skills, and took positive risks by trying new skills in the trades—like carpentry, electrical engineering, surveying, sustainable design, and renewable energy.

Led by women who work in the trades, campers explored a range of educational and career options, all in a supportive, girl-centered environment. The confidence they built using power tools, working in teams, and learning from women role models provides lifelong benefits.

Letter From the Board Treasurer and Chief Financial and Administrative Officer

As Girl Scout River Valleys successfully managed uncertainties and challenges in a post-pandemic environment, we were fortunate to receive the largest individual gift in the history of the council. The unrestricted $4.2 million gift from philanthropist MacKenzie Scott greatly enhances our ability to rebuild the membership and programs that benefit girls in our community for years to come.

Our operations were greatly impacted by the issues that many non-profits faced this year— inflation increased program and staffing costs, staffing shortages limited programs, and the declining investment market all had a negative impact on our financial results. We deftly managed the impact of these issues and others to end the year with a financial surplus.

In Fiscal Year 2022, the council had a net operating surplus of $3 million, which was offset by net investment losses (realized and unrealized) of $2.8 million. Girl Scouts River Valleys also received the forgiveness benefit of the Paycheck Protection Loan - Draw 2 totaling $1.4 million. In addition to the historic donation by Ms. Scott, the cookie program had great success this fiscal year, overcoming supply chain challenges that limited product availability. We also greatly expanded summer camp opportunities for troops and members.

Girl Scouts River Valleys' board of directors is continuing to invest resources in our new strategic plan priorities, which will rebuild membership, help us lead as an anti-racist organization, and grow programs that build confidence in girls to know their worth and prepare them to lead in their world.

 Nancy McKay
 Marie Rasmussen
 Rita Sundberg

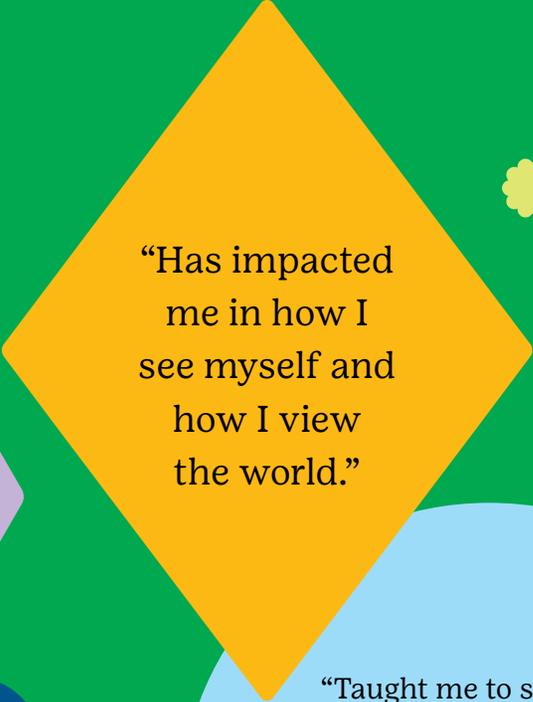

Girl Scouts...

“Is an amazing program that empowers girls to embrace who they are and to fight for what they believe in.”

“Has helped me come out of my shell and become who I am.”

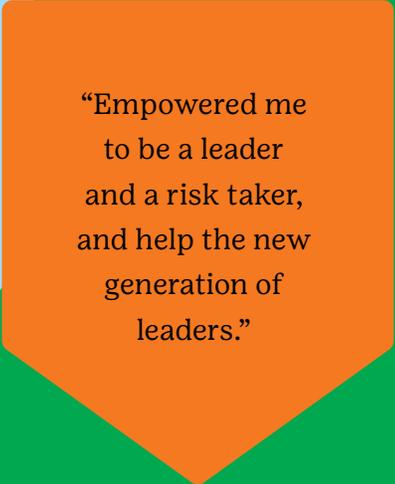

“Has impacted me in how I see myself and how I view the world.”

“Taught me to seek and overcome challenges by helping me experience new things that were out of my comfort zone and by teaching me skills I will continue to use.”

“Has changed my life by allowing me to explore the outdoors and try new things.”

“Empowered me to be a leader and a risk taker, and help the new generation of leaders.”

THE GIRL SCOUT PROMISE

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God* and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

Members may substitute for the word God in accordance with their own spiritual beliefs.*

THE GIRL SCOUT LAW

I will do my best to be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring,
courageous and strong,
and responsible for what I say and do,
and to respect myself and others,
respect authority,
use resources wisely,
make the world a better place,
and be a sister to every Girl Scout.
